

In the years of Albanian statehood, Korça was distinguished from other cities in terms of economic, cultural and urban development. In the first decades of the twentieth century, Korca became one of the cities with the most intense cultural, educational and publicist activities. And in October 1917, Liceu of Korca was formed, which prepared generations of intellectuals that left traces of national history and culture. The period of the communist regime, as elsewhere in Albania, negatively affected, harshly fighting the intellectual and commercial layers of the city.

Today, Korça, in cultural and educational terms, continues to preserve its traditions by ranking among the first cities in Albania

